

Georgia Compt.

Columbus Times.
The wages of all employees of the Eagle and Phoenix factory have been reduced ten per cent, from president down to office boy.

Rev. G. A. Kendrick made immediate arrangements to pay the fine, and is now at liberty. The costs in the case as required by the court amounted to fifty-three dollars and thirty cents. The fine and costs amount to five hundred and fifty-two dollars and seventeen cents. Out of this sum one hundred and thirty-three dollars was paid for the jurors' board at the Raiford house, and ninety-four dollars as the pay of the jury. The county however, is actually out only four hundred and twenty dollars, which is eight-seven cents, of this cost. Kendrick pays fifty-three dollars and thirty cents, as the cost assessed by the court. Mr. Kendrick, we learn, will leave Columbus for a home in the west, as soon as he can make his preparations to leave.

Columbus Enquirer.

Yesterday, Mr. George W. Tillig had handed us a manuscript—an essay on herpetology, which was in the possession of his grandfather. Peter Jenkins Tillig, who graduated at Brown University in 1808. This was written by Thomas Truman in 1781, who was a professor there at this time. It is written upon very ordinary paper, which now is pretty "ragged" about the edges. The writing is as distinct as if written yesterday, yet it is 95 years old.

Jackson Free News.

We frequently hear our little city in the "forest" complimented as being the lucky possessor of the handsome young lady in the state.

—There are 49 five dogs in Valdosta, and they all live, day and night on the streets.

The grassy pond has again run off, and surprising to say there was nearly as many fish in it as there was when it went dry last winter. Mr. Staple had a four mule team load out for market. This is a remarkable body of water.

Camilla Enterprise.

—Some eyes are prevailing to a fearful extent in our town, and they appear to be of a very painful character.

—Our clever friend and citizen, Mr. D. K. Butler and lady, left on Saturday last for Illinois to visit some of their relatives.

Louisville News and Farmer.

—Mr. Willi Brinson caught 6 foxes on last Monday.

—The citizens of Louisville are having a well-cleaning spell.

Dalton Georgia Advertiser.

—Received a communication from Belmont on last Wednesday evening, stating that his little child was very ill. The professor left immediately after receiving the information.

—Menko, of the firm of Menko & Bro., of Atlanta, put in his appearance here on last Tuesday. He was here in the interest of the firm and we hope met with success.

—The foundation of the large hotel at Porter Springs, Atlanta, laid and work has commenced forward rapidly. A number of hands are at work on the building and we may expect its completion in a short time.

Dalton Georgia Signal.

—More goods are sold in Dalton than any town in north Georgia off the railroad.

Care Spring Enterprise.

—The young men who gave up easier places in town last winter and went to the country to earn a living by the sweat of their brow, will not, I trust, be offended at my saying that they have shown a spirit which if cultivated will make good and true men of them. Such conduct is worthy of emulation. The farmer's is as honorable as any occupation, if not the most honorable. Their names are R. J. Perry, F. A. Thompson, Gus Guerry, Jno. Eden, Dolly Hawkes, Geo. Walker and Barney Haynes.

MARRIED IN GEORGIA.

—W. C. Singleton of Macon to Miss Fannie T. McDonald of Savannah.

—George M. Sissum of Fannin to Miss Louisa Beck of Lumpkin county.

DEED IN GEORGIA.

—Capt. Isaac M. Marsh, of New Haven, Conn., and Mrs. E. S. Putnam, of Putnam county, were married at Putnam on June 25, 1876, for $100. The bridegroom is a son of Capt. W. G. Creighton, who was arrested in Pennsylvania on a charge of mail robbery, and is now serving a term of imprisonment at the State Penitentiary at Lancaster, Pa.

—Mrs. Frank T. White, of Augusta.

—Mrs. Mary H. Kelly, of Dalton.

—Miss Julia A. Mills of Dalton.

MISCELLANEOUS POINTS.

—The Southern Sash, Door and Blind Manufacturers' and Dealers' association adopted a low and uniform price list. The following offices were elected to serve on the committee: Wm. Jennings of Atlanta, president; P. F. T. of Charleston, vice president; G. Reynolds of Macon, secretary and treasurer; Executive Committee—I. H. Hall, Charleston; J. T. Denning, Augusta; T. E. Summer, Greenville; H. P. Bickford, Savannah; B. F. Longley, Atlanta.

RUPTURE.

Dr. J. A. SHERMAN cautions the afflicted to beware of Charlatans going about selling imitation appliances and patent medicines as cures for diseases. One such fellow, Dr. W. G. Goods Clegg, W. G. Clegg, was arrested in Pennsylvania on a charge of mail robbery, and is now serving a term of imprisonment at the State Penitentiary at Lancaster, Pa.
